Symptoms

Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON Guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

WASHINGTON CITY GOSSIP.

The Legislature's Right to Make Appointments.

THE SUPREME COURT DECISION.

In the Test Question is Awaited by North Carolinians in Washington With Interest.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, March 18—The decision of the Supreme Court, of North Carolina, in the test question as to the right of the legislature to elect officers to fill positions heretofore reserved to the governor to appoint, is awaited by North Carolina politicians in this city with much interest. Assistant Attorney General Boyd and other North Carolina republicans say that in case the Supreme Court decides the case adversely to the legislature, it will again place the republican party in the state on its feet, and will put them into a much better condition to fight the campaign next year for presidential electors, as the governor will then have the appointment of the full election machinery in the state in his own hands. There is considerable difference of opinion here, even among republicans as to what the decision will be. The court is very evenly divided politically, there being two republicans, besides the chief justice, one democrat, and one populist. If party politics should enter into the decision, the republican justices and the populist would probably stand together, in opposition to the one member of democratic faith. There is reason to believe, however, that the decision will be favorable to the right of the legislature to elect, as it is said here that one of the republican members is doubtful, and he is said to side with the democratic justice. If this should turn out to be correct, the decision will stand three in favor of the right of the legislature to elect, and two in favor of the right of the governor to appoint.

Col. Boyd stated the other day that if the decision is favorable to the republicans, the party will put up a strong fight next year for presidential electors in North Carolina. Other republicans profess to believe that if the decision is favorable to the republicans the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment will result, though democrats say it will not make any difference either way the decision goes, as the white people of North Carolina, in any event, are bound and determined to adopt the proposed constitutional amendment, and to rid the state of the disgrace of black rule.

St. Patrick's day was observed very quietly in this city. In spite of the proverbal rain which should by all manner of right come on St. Patrick's day, the weather was clear and bright, and the temperature warm. There was no parade or other general observance of the day by the various Irish societies, but in the evening several banquets and dances were held to commemorate the day.

Congressman Yost, of Virginia, will leave Washington for his home in Staunton in a few days, and it is said he will resume active work in the newspaper field. Mr. Yost stated yesterday that he would abandon the political field, and would take no part in the Virginia campaign this year. In connection with this, it is said that it is doubtful if the Virginia republicans put up a congressional fight next year, though they may put out nominees for congress, in order to draw votes to the electoral ticket.

Miss Zaidee W. Gibson, daughter of Captain Woolman Gibson, of this city, has gone to Southern Pines, N. C., where she will remain for some time. Miss Gibson has been quite unwell for some time, owing to a severe attack of the grip, and goes to North Carolina to recuperate.

A. J. Galloway, of North Carolina, is in the city for a few day. He is stopping at the National Hotel.

Representative Quarles, of Virginia, was in the city yesterday registering at the Metropolitan Hotel.

Adella A. Roughton has been commissioned postmaster at Bay, N. C.

Bettie Wright has been commissioned postmaster at Coharie.

Gen. Wheeler and Senator Daniel have received invitations to attend the Peace Jubilee at Chicago. Both have accepted. General Wheeler's acceptance is conditional upon the fact as to whether or not he is in the country when the jubilee is held.

Madam Elrado.

The palmist, Madam Elrado, is still at the Planters' Hotel. A number of prominent people, we learn, have called, had the lines of their palms read and were well pleased at the correct information given.

Any man who wants to buy a pair of shoes will do his feet a kindness by looking at Thacker & Brockmann's new tan and black vici kid shoes before deciding where to buy. Two lines at $3.00 and $2.25 are particularly good values.

FAYETTEVILLE NOTES.

The Dispensary—The Late Railway Shops, Etc.

The dispensary seems now to be a fixture for some time. The new board are good men and will run the affairs in the interest of good morals. Mr. Ingold, the former manager, has been retained. The success which characterized his management in the past will continue. He has made the dispensary a success, and hence aroused the opposition of the opponents of the institution. Two more years of decrease in drunkenness and crime will greatly help in getting something better than the dispensary. I have been informed that the gentleman who has purchased property for a silk factory was so impressed with the absence of drunkenness here that his decision was based largely upon that fact. So at the very start of the new term the effects of the dispensary law begins to act in promoting business, rather than decreasing it.

THE LATE R. R. SHOPS

are deserted. The sale of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. was a blow to Fayetteville, and under the new system of A. & Y. we find a clean sweep made of everything belonging to the old road. The whole alphabet save "A. & Y." seems to have disappeared. Clerks, workmen, engineers, conductors, firemen and porters seem to be on the move. In a little while there may not be a stone left to mark the last resting place of the C. F. & Y. V. shops. Our town feels the loss, but our people are doubling their energies and inducements are being offered for factories to locate here. The coming of the silk mills, and prospects for two more cotton mills and other enterprises have enkindled a cheerful spirit in the hearts of our people. The old town may yet spring forth as a strong competitor of her younger sisters further west and north.

The sanitarium of Drs. Highsmith & Marsh is taking shape. When it is completed it will be one of the finest and best equipped in the state. The doctors are the peers of any in our state and can hardly be surpassed by any elsewhere Fayetteville is particularly fortunate in having this institution in its boundaries.

Chas. A. G. Thomas.

Command to Vaccinate.

In view of the widespread opposition to vaccination in Greensboro, I have this day issued the following notice:

North Carolina,
Guilford County.

To the Chief of Police, Greensboro, N. C.:

You are hereby commanded to detain all persons in the city of Greensboro, N. C., who have not yet been vaccinated and to have them before some regular practicing physician of the city and see that they are vaccinated without further delay. No exemption shall, in any case, be made, without a certificate from the physician in charge, and the said certificate shall contain such reasons for exemption as shall be satisfactory to the North Carolina State Board of Health.

Given under my hand and seal this the 18th day of March, 1899.

A. E. Ledbetter, M. D.
Co. Supt. of Health.

I desire further to state that this is the "last call for mourners" and that after Monday, March 20th, this law shall be enforced without regard to age, race, sex, or position in society.

A. E. Ledbetter, M. D.

The Dispensary Won.

The debate at the A. & M. College (colored) last night was listened to by a large crowd. Dispensary vs. Prohibition was strongly argued by J. C. Joyce, for the affirmative and J. R. Quick, for negative. Both made strong speeches which were a credit to the institution. The argument on both sides was strong and after much consideration the judges decided for the dispensary. The debate was greatly enjoyed by those present. It is beneficial to the students of the institution and will probably be made a weekly or monthly event.

Removal of Office.

The Telegram, having outgrown the quarters in the Katz building where it has been doing business for eighteen months, has moved to the rooms under south side of the McAdoo House building, where with increased and enlarged facilities the work of serving the news to our many readers will continue, and where we will be glad to have all our friends call and see us.

RUINS OF THE WINDSOR HOTEL

Still Too Hot to Permit of Clearing Work.

FORTY-ONE BODIES ARE BURIED.

Crowds Hung About All Night and Today—Every Avenue is Choked With Anxious People.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, March 18—The ruins of the Windsor Hotel, which was burned last night, are still too hot to permit of work therein. It will be ten or fifteen hours before the workmen can begin digging, the firemen say, and that then the remains of some forty-one missing people will be found. The crowds hung about the streets all night and this morning every avenue is choked with people who are waiting patiently in the rain.

The estimate of persons lost and injured reaches 102, as follows: Dead 18; injured 42; missing 42. The police have made search for those reported missing and found 22 at hotels and 4 at their homes. This reduces the known list of missing to 42. The injured in the hospitals were doing well this morning. Probably only one will die. Two policemen who were reported lost in the ruins have turned up safe. Two firemen are reported lost, but the report is not confirmed. Many persons, friends of the servants of the hotel were smuggled to the roof of the hotel to see the procession. This will add to the list of the dead.

AMERICAN FORCES REORGANIZED

Disposition of Troops for Pushing the Philippine War

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

Manila, March 18—The entire American force has been reorganized into two divisions, three brigades in each being formed. General Lawton today assumed command of the first, consisting of the Washington, North Dakota and California volunteers; under command of General King, six troops of cavalry, the fourteenth regulars, the Idaho volunteers and a battalion of Iowa troops; under General Ovenshine, the Third and Twenty-second regular Infantry and Oregon regiment; under General Wheaton, Dyers and Hawthorne's light batteries.

McArthur's division consists of two batteries of the Third artillery and the Kansas and Montana volunteers; under General Otis, Colorado, Nebraska and South Dakota regiments and six companies of Pennsylvania volunteers; under General Hale, the Fourth and Seventeenth regulars, Minnesota and Wyoming volunteers and the Utah artillery. A separate brigade will be assigned to do provost guard duty, consisting of the Twentieth and eight companies of the Twenty-third regular Infantry.

Sanford the Terminus.

It is said that the authorities of the Atlantic & Yadkin are considering the question of making Sanford the terminal point for freight trains. The freight trains have heretofore been made up at Fayetteville. Sanford, besides being a live and prosperous village with a bright future, is a more central point on the road and the latter fact is probably attracting the attention of the authorties.

Stage Jewels.

It is said that the crown worn by Edwin Rostell in Richard III, nearly approaches in cost that worn by Edwin Booth, when he gave his superb production of this tragedy at Booth's Theatre, New York.

A jeweled sword belt worn by Mr. Rostell in the coronation scene, represents a cost of nearly $600.00. Stage jewels as a rule are not as inexpensive as the public is led to suppose, for they are generally cut and undergo the process of bringing to them brilliancy as diamonds do.

Wingate vs. Mrs. Carrie Yates.

The case of Wingate vs. Mrs. Carrie Yates wherein the plaintiff asks for $50.00 alleged damages caused by a leak in the roof of the defendant's building, which Wingate occupies, was tried before 'Squire Eckle this morning. Mrs. Yates appealed to the Superior court.

A New Church.

The congregation of St. Agnes Catholic church will soon begin the erection of a handsome new edifice on North Elm street. The old church on North Forbis street has been sold to the city to be used in connection with the North Greensboro graded school.

There is a warm welcome here for all good citizens and the Citizen will do all possible to bring this gentleman his colony here."

Annexation minus American principles; annexation plus American dollars.

The army of liberation from the the country of freedom which began a war for humanity's sake is making it rather a hard task just now for for the Filipinos to reconcile precept with practice.

Advices from Madrid say the Queen Regent has signed the peace treaty and advices from Manila say the war is nearly over in that quarter. With an abiding faith in everybody's truthfulness, coupled with the fact that the queen has signed the treaty of peace, we may confidently expect peace some time during the next decade.

The third annual debate between the University of Georgia and the University of North Carolina came off at Athens, Ga., last night. The young orators debated the query: "Resolved, That United States senators should be elected by the direct vote of the people." The Tarheels won, making their score the best two out of three. Three cheers for the Chapel Hill boys!

We see in the account of the Windsor Hotel fire that Miss Helen Gould opened her home to the unfortunate sufferers by that terrible fire. Not many years ago the Gould name did not appeal to the affections of the average American citizen very strongly, but a quiet little woman, Miss Helen Gould, by her words and deeds of kindness and love, in war and peace, has done more to perpetuate the name in loving remembrance than all the money making genius of Wall street. We regret that the legislature of our state did not pass resolutions of appreciation of her charity and noble deeds during the Spanish war. It would have taken but a few minutes and would have been a just and deserved recognition of the ministering spirit of this generous woman.

In the rather perplexing state of affairs that exists in the east, as far as the United States and the world generally is concerned, the thought comes to mind of the uncertainty of what a day may bring forth, and a brief review of the policies and relations of nations, one to the other, in the last century, impresses this fact upon us. The war of the American revolution, England against the United States and France; Napoleonic wars, France against Europe; Crimean war, 1853, England, France and Turkey against Russia; Civil war, 1861-5, the north against the south, with England partial to the south; Franco-Prussian war, Germany against France; in 1893, the Princess Eulalie of Spain was the guest of the United States at the world's fair at Chicago; in 1898 Spain and the United States at war; 1899, France, Russia, Spain and Germany friendly, while Dixie, Yankee Doodle and God Save the Queen are being played simultaneously to the delight of Uncle Sam and John Bull.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles, Instst vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

A sentence of twenty years was imposed on Thrasher Meade, the notorious negro train robber, safe blower and bandit, at Meridian, Miss.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist Church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says; "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by C. E. Holton.

A RUNAWAY ICE YACHT.

An Exciting Chase and a Narrow Escape From Death.

Some years ago there was a runaway down at Shelter Island in which a young girl was left in the boat with a gale blowing. She tried to throw the sheet loose, but it was frozen and her fingers were too cold, added to which the sheet had fouled the tiller, and she could not bring the boat up into the wind to stop its way, the sail being so set that the boat continued running right along at a terrific rate of speed.

Occupants of the other boats soon realized the position and made chase, gaining slowly, one boat finally being far in the lead of the others by the time the end of the island was left behind. Right in front lay the end of the ice, broken short by the action of the tide water, and there the breakers rolled in, throwing up the anchor ice, dashing it down, and then retreating, sucking it under the floe and packing it up for another break.

For some time it was a question as to whether the chasing boat would catch up with the girl before she was carried over the edge to certain death. But at last the boats came together for one brief second, the girl was snatched by strong arms to the pursuer's yacht, the sheet was eased off in a flash, and, spinning round in its own length, it was set right before the wind instead of reaching into it, just as the runaway dashed over into the anchor ice.

A short, sharp crack gave notice of the parting of the ice beneath the very runners of the now homeward bound savior, and with a long stagger, which only her speed enabled her to withstand, she dashed across the fast opening crack, safe, to be brought up into the wind at a distance, while the late runaway danced, a wreck, among the broken ice. It was one of the close calls of ice yachting which, thank goodness, very seldom occur!—W. P. Pond in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

LUCKY DEUCE OF SPADES.

Remarkable Run of Luck, but All For the Other Man.

One by one the old superstitions are being torn from us. People nowadays walk ostentatiously under ladders and suffer no evil consequences. Friday is quite a popular day for the commencement of a long journey, and sitting down 13 at dinner is frequently unattended with untoward results. A deeply rooted superstition among card players is a belief in the lucky properties of the two of spades. The present writer's faith, however, was severely shaken by a phenomenal coincidence which occurred only a few days ago.

Sitting down to a game of whist, he thoroughly shuffled both packs of cards, and happened to notice that the two of spades was the bottom card of one of the packs.

"This ought to bring me luck," he remarked to his friends.

He then took up the second pack, and was astonished to find that the two of spades was also at the bottom of that. Words failed to express his amazement when, in drawing for partners and deal—the cards had been shuffled again—he once more drew the two of spades.

The odds against this triple event occurring must be enormous, but more was to follow. The deal fell to the writer, and the turn up card was the inevitable two of spades!

After this the dealer felt justified in believing he was in for a good evening. As a matter of fact, he lost six rubbers in succession.—London Mail.

Children and Dolls.

Writing in The Contemporary Review, Professor Sully discusses the curious aspects in which children regard dolls. He says: Professor Hall has brought to light some curious preferences of children. He tells us, for example, that, whereas out of 845 children 191 preferred wax dolls, as many as 144 pronounced in favor of rag ones. Odd preferences are sometimes shown with regard to size. A lady writes me that she preferred 4 inch halfpenny dolls because there was so much more to be done with these in the way of putting on wigs made from doormats, inking in eyebrows, etc. On the other hand, another English lady tells me that her childish ambition was the possession of a big doll—"one that would fill my arms and take some of the cuddling that I wanted to bestow and which nobody seemed to want." This girl image is, so far as the uninitiated adult can divine, the true child's doll.

Coalfields of the World.

Geologists estimate the great coalfields of the world in square miles as follows: China, 200,000; United States, east of the Rockies, 190,000; Canada, 65,000; India, 35,500; New South Wales, 24,000; Russia, 20,000, and the United Kingdom, 11,500. There are many deposits in other countries, but their extent is inconsiderable. England's coal area is small; still she for years produced more than any other country. Now the United States is ahead. English coal veins are thin; one only 14 inches wide has been worked 1,200 feet down. On the other hand, there are veins in the Pennsylvania anthracite region 60 feet thick and in the bituminous regions 18 feet thick. Our Appalachian coalfields are the largest known, and alone could supply the whole world for centuries to come.

An Original Oath of Allegiance.

In the old days when the Spanish province of Aragon was a proud and independent monarchy the people used, when choosing their king, the following singular form of election:

"We, the freeborn inhabitants of the ancient kingdom of Aragon, who are equal to you, Don Philip, and something more, elect you to be our king on condition that you preserve to us our rights and privileges. If in this you should fail, we own you for our king no longer."—Harper's Round Table.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by C. E. Holton.

INSPECTOR GREGORY'S WORK.

What the Northern Papers Say of a Tarheel Detective.

Mr. Hardy T. Gregory, a Greensboro boy who has done successful detective work as postoffice inspector for some years, is now startling and surprising Pennsylvanians with his charming manners and fine detective work. In the case just tried in Wilkesbarre against E. F. Bogart, late postmaster at that place, for robbing the mails, Mr. Gregory took an important part. In the report of the trial the Wilkesbarre Times of March 16th says:

"Mr. Gregory's recital of the part he played in the case was charmingly told—charmingly because he spoke with a rich and refreshing southern dialect and having also a pleasing and musical voice every word he uttered was eagerly listened to. As he told of marking the money placed in the "test" letter one could almost have heard a pin drop so intense was the interest inspired in the audience by that portion of the recital. From that point on to the climax where Gregory suddenly stepped behind the curtain and discovered the postmaster seated at his desk and in the act of resealing a letter, his story possessed all the essential elements on which an enterprising play writer could very readily turn out a modern drama. And then the dialogue between the inspector and postmaster—that would fit very nicely in any play intended to illustrate how the guilty excuse themselves when caught in a trap temptingly baited and set to catch them."

Another paper, the Wilkesbarre News, in reporting the same trial designates Mr. Gregory as the star witness and says:

"The brains of the government "push," however, was Inspector Gregory. Intelligence is stamped all over his countenance, and he directed the prosecution's side of the case. When he told his story a pin could be heard drop on the floor."

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2.20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jeckyl Island are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York ond Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyl Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thweatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

Bingham Boys Debate.

The debate by Bingham boys at the college for young women came off yesterday before a large and interested audience. The big hall of the college was well filled with the gray uniformed cadets, the college girls and some town's people. The question discussed was, "Shall there be an Anglo American Alliance," and it was handled in a way that showed careful preparation and much natural ability. It was pronounced by the judges as being far above the ordinary school debate. The contestants were Messrs. J. H. Loveman, of Alabama, and J. Y. Smith, of North Carolina, for the affirmative and Messrs. H. Lamar Rankin, of Georgia, and Lansing Irvine, of Texas, for the negative.

The judges were Prof. J. D Eggleston, Prof. Morton and Mr. Frank Carter. Their decision was in favor of the affirmative.—Asheville Gazette.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by C. E. Holton.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 26.

I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues— despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhœa. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles, We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. Vaccination is a preventive of smallpox, and a dollar a month is a preventive of getting your clothes dirty—for that is our business, to clean and press. We also make no exception to the ladies. We clean and press their skirts and waists at a figure that will astouish you, but one we will guarantee to give you good work. We dye Wednesday. Give us a trial and we will please you.

CLOTHIERS.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

G. R. Browder, of Durham, was here last night.

Pulaski Cowper, of Raleigh, spent last night in the city.

The Guilford College base ball team passed through this morning going to Chapel Hill to cross bats with the University team this afternoon.

Pastor Schmidt, of the Lutheran church, on Ashe street, is erecting a handsome five room cottage on the lot adjoining the church property.

Bishop Haid, president of St. Mary's College, at Belmont, is in the city. He is the guest of Judge Robt. M. Douglas, on Asheboro street.

Two large wagon loads of tobacco were brought here yesterday from Caswell county. The tobbaco was sold at the Farmers' warehouse today at prices that made the hearts of the farmers glad.

Kaufman Venable, of the hospital corps of General Lee's army, returned yesterday afternoon from Fort Caswell, where he reported, after being at home here on sick leave. He has received his discharge.

Mr. and Mrs J. A. Efird, of Winston, spent last night at the Benbow. They were returning home from their bridal tour. They spent about a month visiting the most popular resorts in Florida and other Southern states.

Engineer D. L. McCullough, one of the oldest and most popular engineers on the Southern Railway, was stricken with paralysis Thursday, in Statesville, and is now in a precarious condition. "Uncle Dick's" many friends here hope for his early recovery.

We are pleased to note that Edwin Rostell is not advertised like a circus or a farce comedy, but that what matter does herald his coming is highly artistic and very modest in tone, which is in keeping with an impersonation of character moulded by the greater minds.

The board of aldermen was to have held an adjourned meeting last night to hear the suggestions of the committee appointed to make investigation in regard to the apportionment of bonds to be voted. There was no quorum and the report will probably be heard at the regular meeting next Friday night.

The regular semi-annual civil service examination for departmental service took place yesterday in Bogart's opera house. There were fifteen applicants; six railway mail clerks, six departmental clerks, two messengers and one skilled laborer. The examination was conducted by T. H. Tate, assisted by Prof. R. W. Hodgin.

This is the last day on which vaccination can be had at the market house and those who wish to be vaccinated cheap (25c—or free if you haven't the money) must have it done before 9 o'clock tonight. Those who have not paid for their cestificates must get them from officer Scott—must get them this evening, as they will be needed next week.

Exchange of Valuable Property.

W. J. Weatherly this morning sold his handsome residence, corner East Gaston and North Davie streets, to J. Norman Wills. Mr. Weatherly then brought Mr. Wills' property, corner Fisher avenue and Keogh street. Mr. Wills not long since erected a handsome dwelling on his property and otherwise improved it, making it one of the most desirable places in the city. Mr. Weatherly's property is well located, near the heart of the city, and was more valuable on account of its location. The gentlemen will move their families next week.

MRS. HOUSEKEEPER:

Please permit us to ask you a very pointed question: Have you a Universal Food Chopper? By this we do not mean a meat grinder, but a Chopper, which takes the place of chopping bowl and beater.

It chops meat, of course, but it does more. You can chop ham, cocoanut, or bread instead of grating it. You can—but we can't tell it all here. Our booklet gives full information Free. You will have use for it every day in the year. It is very simple and very cheap. Please call and let us show it to you. Yours truly,
